BURKBURNETT HIGH SCHOOL
BURKBURNETT, TEXAS

Today is here! Hook about me. My world is slowly changing. I feel the warmth of yesterday, And the newness of tomorrow.

I realize now that I am here; The past is in my mind. The future bobs in choppy seas, And my fate—? It's up to me.

The function of the Burkburnett School Board is one of great importance to our community. This board interprets and shapes the policies of the school by showing interest in the success of each school year. Without these competent and understanding citizens our school system would not be able to operate for the welfare of the students and the community as a whole.

Cultivating Responsible Leadership

This sign is a prime example of the originality displayed by students who campaigned for office.

Pat stands before the Sophomore class to present her qualifications for the office she is seeking.

Freshman Mark Peterson seeks the backing of his classmates.

Confidently, Randy urges Juniors to elect their Vice-President.

Darrell encourages Seniors to cast their votes for him.

It takes courage and ambition to campaign for an office. This year many students at B.H.S. had what it took. Even though all were not successful in their bid, the campaigns brought them closer to the real meaning of democracy.

Delving Into The Mysteries Of Drugs

In October members of the Texas Youth Council and various law enforcement agencies came to B.H.S. These officials met with a portion of the student body to answer questions about drugs and drug abuse. These students, in turn, went into the class-rooms and led their fellow students in discussions concerning aspects of the drug problem.

Several students ponder a confusing point

One group discusses the populties involved in the abuse of drugs.

Roy leads the discussion in his group.

Mr. Jim Phagan, Wichita County District Attorney, answers a student's question about narcottes.

Submission In The

Bewildered Andy has lost his penny.

It is a well known fact among high school students that Seniors are superior to Freshmen. This year, as every year, at B H.S. there was an event in which the beniors demonstrated their superiors of They dressed the Freshmen in ridiculous costumes, complete with shaving cream and lipstick. These costumes, skits, and other acts of submission helped to make the Freshmen feel more a part of our school.

LAWTON, Okla - "Neversay-die" determination and the talented toe of Drake Andrakes lifted the Burkburnett Bulldogs from the depths of defeat to a stuming 10-7 last-second victory over Lawton Eisenhower here Friday night.

The first time Burk has ever downed lke's Eagles in five meetings, a victory seemed denied again this time around until Andrakes' severly angled field goal backed a strong wind for 27 yards to turn the game around with no time left on the scoreboard clock.

With the score tied at 7-7 and just 3-15 left in the game, Burk had taken over from the hosting Eagles on the Bu' 23. From there, a ma and poised drive set for Andrakes' hero-

Hard-running picked up a p downs including tacular 27 yard cu. the middle of the Ike .

A bolding penalty Buildogs back but quark Robble Young's pass was to by flanker Jim Sims on a aerebatic comeback catch for a 23-yard gain to the like 28 yard stripe.

Sims snared another serial for 7 yards but an incompletion stopped the clock with just 0.04 left in the mass and 'Dog man's Bill Fromas called upon Andrakes for what seemed like an impossible task.

The kick soared off to the left and just slipped inside the cross bar despite a mont Eagle rush and a forceful opposing wind. The partisan crowd was stunned. The Burk stands were jubilant.

Brimming with knowledge—bubbling with the excitement and anticipation of their future, the Senior class of 1970 eagerly makes plans for the years to come. Patiently living out their last days at high school and with each other—realizing that their paths will soon separate but knowing that they will always be together in memories of their days at BHS.
